1. Before you read, survey the article.

- ☒ Look at the title: Lincoln in Kansas.
- ☒ Look at captions under pictures.
- ☒ Look at the illustrations.
- ☒ Look at the map.
- ☒ Read the first paragraph.
- ☒ Read the last paragraph.

2. Question while you survey.

- ☒ Turn the title into a question.
- ☒ Turn captions into questions.
- ☒ What do you already know about Abraham Lincoln?
- ☒ Write down any words that are not familiar.

3. Read.

- ☒ Read the entire article.
- ☒ Does the text answer your questions?
- ☒ Look at the unfamiliar words closely. Can you figure out what they mean?
- ☒ Study the map and illustrations.

4. Recite.

- ☒ Take notes as you read using your own words.
- ☒ Use your own words to tell the class about this article.

5. Review.

- ☒ After you have read and recited the article, write questions for the important points of the article.
- ☒ Answer the questions you wrote.
- ☒ Look over your answers and organize the information.
- ☒ Read aloud the notes you have written.
- ☒ Summarize the information by creating a graphic organizer, writing a summary, or participating in a class discussion.
